

Let's Be Klea

Illegal refrigerants can lead to prosecution

R-134a Disposable Cylinders are illegal in Europe.

Make sure you're buying your HFCs from a reputable source

Signs a HFC canister may be illegal:

- It was bought online
- There is no returns policy
- Price is much lower than the industry average
- It has no quality certificate

Potential Liability:

Fines

Prosecution

Equipment failure

Damage to your reputation

Employee and customer injury

TAKE ACTION TO STOP ILLEGAL REFRIGERANTS NOW!

Contact EFCTC Action Line: www.fluorocarbons.org

Although Koura believes that the information contained herein is accurate and reliable, it is presented without guarantee or responsibility of any kind and does not constitute any representation or warranty of Koura, either expressed or implied. A number of factors may affect the performance of any products used in conjunction with user's materials, such as other raw materials, application, formulation, environmental factors and manufacturing conditions among others, all of which must be taken into account by the user in producing or using the products. The user should not assume that all necessary data for the proper evaluation of these products are contained herein. Information provided herein does not relieve the user from the responsibility of carrying out its own tests and experiments, and the user assumes all risks and liabilities (including, but not limited to, risks relating to results, patent infringement, regulatory compliance and health, safety and environment) related to the use of the products and/or information contained herein.

© 2019 Koura. All rights reserved.